Headline:
Breezy, with sunny spells and scattered showers, heavy at times.

Today:
Mostly dry start with a few brighter or sunny intervals, but also one or two showers around. Further showers then developing by the afternoon, turning heavy at times, with isolated thundery bursts possible. Rather breezy, especially along coasts. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Tonight:
Heavy showers easing during the evening with clear spells developing. The odd shower cannot be completely ruled out in the south, but likely staying dry. Staying rather breezy. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Saturday:
Sunny spells, especially at first, but cloud soon building through the morning. Scattered heavy showers then possible, with the odd rumble of thunder. Some parts likely staying dry, however. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Breezy with sunny spells and showers Sunday and Monday, with a risk of thundery downpours. Drier Tuesday, with some sunny spells, but a few showers still possible. Feeling rather cool.
